READER'S TYPIKA ON SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 2025

(21st Sunday after Pentecost & 5th Sunday of Luke)

The Holy Martyrs Akindinos, Pegasios, Aphthonios, Elpidophoros and Anempodistos of Persia

Leader: Through the prayers of our holy fathers, Lord Jesus Christ our God, have mercy on us, and save us.

Reader: Amen.

THE TRISAGION PRAYERS

People: Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal: have mercy on us. (Thrice)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen

All-holy Trinity, have mercy on us. Lord, cleanse us from our sins. Master, pardon our iniquities. Holy One, visit and heal our infirmities for thy Name's sake.

Lord, have mercy. (Thrice)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

Leader: O Lord, Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on us.

All: Amen.

Reader: Lord, have mercy. (12 times)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

O come, let us worship and fall down before God our King.

O come, let us worship and fall down before Christ, our King and our God.

O come, let us worship and fall down before the Very Christ, our King and our God.

THE FIRST ANTIPHON: PSALM 102

Reader: Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me bless His holy name. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all that He hath done for thee, Who is gracious unto all thine iniquities, Who healeth all thine infirmities, Who redeemeth thy life from corruption, Who crowneth thee with mercy and compassion, Who fulfilleth thy desire with good things; thy youth shall be renewed as the eagle's. The Lord performeth deeds of mercy, and executeth judgement for all them that are wronged. He hath made His ways known unto Moses, unto the sons of Israel the things that He hath willed. Compassionate and merciful is the Lord, long-suffering and plenteous in mercy; not unto the end will He be angered, neither unto eternity will He be wroth. Not according to our iniquities hath He dealt with us, neither according to our sins hath He rewarded us. For according to the height of heaven from the earth, the Lord hath made His mercy to prevail over them that fear Him. As far as the east is from the west, so far hath He removed our iniquities from us. Like as a father hath compassion upon his sons, so hath the Lord had compassion upon them that fear Him; for He knoweth whereof we are made, He hath remembered that we are dust. As for man, his days are as the grass; as a flower of the field, so shall he blossom forth. For when the wind is passed over it, then it shall be gone, and no longer will it know the place thereof. But the mercy of the Lord is from eternity, even unto eternity, upon them that fear Him. And His righteousness is upon sons of sons, upon them that keep His testament and remember His commandments to do them. The Lord in heaven hath prepared His throne, and His kingdom ruleth over all. Bless the Lord, all ye His angels, mighty in strength, that perform His word, to hear the voice of His words. Bless the Lord, all ye His hosts, His ministers that do His will. Bless the Lord, all ye His works, in every place of His dominion.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen

And again: Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me bless His holy Name; blessed art Thou, O Lord.

THE SECOND ANTIPHON: PSALM 145

Reader: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Praise the Lord, O my soul. I will praise the Lord in my life, I will chant unto my God for as long as I have my be-ing. Trust ye not in princes, in the sons of men, in whom there is no salvation. His spirit shall go forth, and he shall return unto his earth. In that day all his thoughts shall perish. Blessed is he of whom the God of Jacob is his help, whose hope is in the Lord his God, Who hath made heaven and the earth, the sea and all that is therein, Who keepeth truth unto eternity, Who executeth judgement for the wronged, Who giveth food unto the hungry. The Lord looseth the fettered; the Lord maketh wise the blind; the Lord setteth aright the fallen; the Lord loveth the righteous; the Lord preserveth the proselytes. He shall adopt for His own the orphan and widow, and the way of sinners shall He destroy. The Lord shall be king unto eternity; thy God, O Sion, unto generation and generation.

Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

THE HYMN OF JUSTINIAN

Choir: Only-begotten Son and Word of God, who art immortal, who for our salvation willed to be incarnate of the Holy Theotokos and ever-virgin Mary, and without change became man; and wast crucified, O Christ our God, and trampled down death by death; who art one of the Holy Trinity, glorified together with the Father and the Holy Spirit: save us.

THE BEATITUDES IN TONE FOUR

In Thy kingdom remember us, O Lord, when Thou comest in Thy kingdom.

- Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
- Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted.
- Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.
- Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled.

For the Resurrection in Tone Four

Verse 8: Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.

Because of the tree, Adam lost his habitation in Paradise; by the Tree of the Cross, the thief inhabited Paradise; for the one, by tasting, set at nought the commandment of the Creator; and the other, who was crucified with Thee, confessed Thee, the hidden God, as he cried: Remember me in Thy Kingdom.

Verse 7: Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

Thou Who wast lifted up upon the Cross and didst destroy the power of death, and Who, as God, didst blot out the handwriting that was against us, O Lord, only Friend of man, do Thou grant the repentance of the thief also unto us who worship Thee with faith, O Christ our God, and cry unto Thee: Remember us also, in Thy Kingdom.

Verse 6: Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the sons of God.

Upon the Cross didst Thou tear up with the spear the handwriting that was against us; and being counted among the dead, Thou didst bind the tyrant there, delivering all men from the bonds of death by Thy Resurrection, whereby we have been enlightened, O man-befriending Lord, and we cry to Thee: Remember us also, in Thy Kingdom.

Verse 5: Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Thou Who wast crucified and didst arise from the grave on the third day as One Mighty, and didst raise up Adam the first-fashioned man, O only Immortal One, vouchsafe that I also, O Lord, may turn to repentance with my whole heart, and ever cry unto Thee with fervent faith: Remember me, O Lord, in Thy Kingdom.

Verse 4: Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

He that is impassible became a passible man for our sake; and being willingly nailed to the Cross, He raised us up together with Himself. Wherefore, with the Cross, we glorify also the Passion and Resurrection, whereby we were fashioned anew, whereby we are also saved, as we cry out: Remember us also in Thy Kingdom.

Verse 3: Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in the heavens.

Unto Him that arose from the dead and despoiled the dominion of Hades, and was seen by the myrrh-bearing women and said, Rejoice—let us offer entreaty unto Him, O ye faithful, that He deliver from corruption the souls of us who ever cry unto Him with the voice of the grateful thief: Remember us also in Thy Kingdom.

Verse 2: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

O ye faithful, let us pray that with one accord we all might worthily glorify the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, the Unity of Godhead, existing in three Hypostases, remaining unmingled, simple, indivisible, and unapproachable, by Whom we are delivered from the fire of torment.

Verse 1: Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Thy Mother, O Christ, who seedlessly bare Thee in the flesh, and truly remained an incorrupt Virgin even after giving birth, do we bring before Thee to make intercession, O Master plenteous in mercy, that Thou wouldst ever grant the forgiveness of failings unto them that cry: Remember us also in Thy Kingdom.

THE SUNDAY EISODIKON

Verse: O come, let us worship and fall down before Christ.

Choir: O Son of God, Who art risen from the dead; save us who sing unto Thee: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

Apolytikia:

RESURRECTIONAL APOLYTIKION IN TONE FOUR

Having learned the joyful message of the Resurrection from the angel the women disciples of the Lord cast from them their parental condemnation. And proudly broke the news to the Disciples, saying: Death hath been spoiled; Christ God is risen, granting the world Great Mercy.

APOLYTIKION OF THE PERSIAN MARTYRS IN TONE TWO

Blessed is the earth that drank your blood, O prizewinners of the Lord, and holy are the tabernacles that received your spirits; for in the stadium ye triumphed over the enemy, and ye proclaimed Christ with boldness. Beseech Him, we pray, since He is good, to save our souls.

APOLYTIKION OF ST. MARY MAGDALENE IN TONE ONE

(The soldiers standing guard)

When Christ God had been born for our sakes from the Virgin, thou faith-fully didst follow Him, keeping His statutes and heeding His sacred laws, O august Mary Magdalene. Hence, as we today observe thy holy remembrance, we receive the loosing of our sins and transgressions through thy holy prayer(s) for us.

THE TRISAGION HYMN

Holy God, Holy mighty, Holy Immortal have mercy on us. (thrice)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, both now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Holy Immortal have mercy on us.

Holy God, Holy mighty, Holy Immortal have mercy on us.

THE APOSTOLOS & THE GOSPEL

PROKEIMENON, TONE 4

How magnified are Thy works, O Lord! In wisdom hast Thou made them all. (Ps.103:26a)
{twice}

Verse: Bless the Lord, O my soul; O Lord my God, Thou hast been magnified exceedingly.
(Ps.103:1)

How magnified are Thy works, O Lord! In wisdom hast Thou made them all.

APOSTOLOS OF THE 21ST SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST:

Reader: The reading is from the Epistle of St. Paul to the Galatians §203 (2:16-20).

Brethren, you know that a man is not justified by works of the Law but through faith in Jesus Christ. Even we have believed in Christ Jesus, in order to be justified by faith in Christ, and not by works of the Law, be-cause by works of the Law shall no one be justified. But if, in our endeavor to be justified in Christ, we ourselves were found to be sinners, is Christ then an agent of sin? Certainly not! But if I build up again those things which I tore down, then I prove myself a transgressor. For I through the Law died to the Law, that I might live to God. I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ Who lives in me; and the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, Who loved me and gave Himself for me.

ALLELUIA, TONE 4

Choir: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

Verse 1: Bend Thy bow, and proceed prosperously, and be king, because of truth and meekness and righteousness. (Ps.44:3b)

Choir: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

Verse 2: Thou hast loved righteousness and hated iniquity. Wherefore God, Thy God, hath anointed Thee with the oil of gladness more than Thy fellows. (Ps.44:6)

Choir: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

GOSPEL FOR THE 5TH SUNDAY OF LUKE:

Reader: The reading is from the Holy Gospel according to St. Luke §83 (16:19-31).

Choir: Glory the Thee O Lord, Glory to Thee.

Reader: The Lord said, “There was a rich man, who was clothed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, full of sores, who desired to be fed with what fell from the rich man’s table; moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. The poor man died and was carried by the angels to Abraham’s bosom. The rich man also died and was buried; and in Hades, being in torment, he lifted up his eyes, and saw Abraham far off and Lazarus in his bosom. And he called out, ‘Father Abraham, have mercy upon me, and send Lazarus to dip the end of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am in anguish in this flame.’ But Abraham said, ‘Son, remember that you in your lifetime received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in anguish. And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm has been fixed, in order that those who would pass from here to you may not be able, and none may cross from there to us.’ And he said, ‘Then I beg you, father, to send him to my father’s house, for I have five brothers, so that he may warn them, lest they also come into this place of torment.’ But Abraham said, ‘They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.’ And he said, ‘No, father Abraham; but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent.’ He said to him, ‘If they do not hear Moses and the prophets, neither will they be convinced if someone should rise from the dead.’”

Choir: Glory to Thee O Lord, Glory to Thee.

Then we sing the following, in tone 6

Choir: Remember us, O Lord, when Thou comest in Thy kingdom.

- Remember us, O Master, when Thou comest in Thy kingdom.
- Remember us, O Holy One, when Thou comest in Thy kingdom.

The heavenly choir praiseth Thee and saith: Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord of Sabaoth; heaven and earth are full of Thy glory.

Verse: Come unto Him, and be enlightened and your faces shall not be ashamed.

The heavenly choir praiseth Thee and saith: Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord of Sabaoth; heaven and earth are full of Thy glory.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

The choir of Holy angels and archangels, with all the heavenly hosts praiseth Thee and saith: Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord of Sabaoth; heaven and earth are full of Thy glory.

Both now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

THE SYMBOL OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible;

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the Only-begotten, Begotten of the Father before all worlds, Light of Light, Very God of Very God, Begotten, not made; of one essence with the Father, by whom all things were made: Who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven, and was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and was made man; And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate, and suffered and was buried; And the third day He rose again, according to the Scriptures; And ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of the Father; And He shall come again with glory to judge the living and the dead, Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of Life, Who proceedeth from the Father, Who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified, Who spake by the Prophets;

And I believe in One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church. I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins. I look for the Resurrection of the dead, And the Life of the world to come. Amen.

Leader: Remit, pardon, forgive, O God, our offenses, both voluntary and involuntary, in deed and word, in knowledge and ignorance, by day and by night, in mind and thought; forgive us all things, for Thou art good and the Lover of mankind.

All: Amen

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

Leader: O Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on us.

All: Amen.

Kontakia:

KONTAKION OF THE RESURRECTION IN TONE FOUR

(On this day Thou hast appeared)

Now hath my Deliverer * and mighty Savior * raised the earthborn from the grave * and from their bonds, since He is God; * and He hath crushed Hades' brazen gates * and is arisen the third day as Sovereign Lord.

KONTAKION OF THE PERSIAN MARTYRS IN TONE FOUR

(Thou Who wast raised up)

Shining majestic with the Trinity's beauty, * the fivefold-splendoured and divine host of athletes * availed to dull the tyrants' dreadful shafts and blows, * gushing forth a boundless grace * not despoiled, stopped, or hindered, * to all who approach through them * by divine inspiration * with hope and longing and with faith and love * to the Creator of all, even Christ our God.

KONTAKION OF THE SEASON IN TONE TWO

O protection of Christians that cannot be put to shame, mediation unto the Creator most constant: O despise not the suppliant voices of those who have sinned; but be thou quick, O good one, to come unto our aid, who in faith cry unto thee: Hasten to intercession, and speed thou to make supplication, thou who dost ever protect, O Theotokos, them that honor thee.

Leader: Lord, have mercy. (12 times)

O All-Holy Trinity, the consubstantial dominion, the indivisible Kingdom, and cause of every Good: Show Thy good will even unto me a sinner; make steadfast my heart and grant it understanding, and take away mine every defilement; enlighten my mind that I may glorify, hymn, worship, and say:

Choir: One is Holy, One is Lord, Jesus Christ, to the Glory of God the Father. Amen.

PSALM 33

Reader: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen

I will bless the Lord at all times, His praise shall continually be in my mouth. In the Lord shall my soul be praised; let the meek hear and be glad. O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt His name together. I sought the Lord, and He heard me, and delivered me from all my tribulations. Come unto Him, and be enlightened, and your faces shall not be ashamed. This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him, and saved him out of all his tribulations. The angel of the Lord will encamp round about them that fear Him, and will deliver them. O taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed is the man that hopeth in Him. O fear the Lord, all ye His saints; for there is no want to them that fear Him. Rich men have turned poor and gone hungry; but they that seek the Lord shall not be deprived of any good thing. Come ye children, hearken unto me; I will teach you the fear of the Lord. What man is there that desireth life, who loveth to see good days? Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile. Turn away from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it. The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and His ears are opened unto their supplication. The face of the Lord is against them that do evil, utterly to destroy the remembrance of them from the earth. The righteous cried, and the Lord heard them, and He delivered them out of all their tribulations. The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a contrite heart, and He will save the humble of spirit. Many are the tribulations of the righteous, and the Lord shall deliver them out of them all. The Lord keepeth all their bones, not one of them shall be broken. The death of sinners is evil, and they that hate the righteous shall do wrong. The Lord will redeem the souls of His servants, and none of them will do wrong that hope in Him.

THE HYMN TO THE THEOTOKOS

It is truly meet and right to bless thee, O Theotokos, who art ever blessed and all-blameless, and the Mother of our God. More honourable than the cherubim and more glorious beyond compare than the seraphim, thou who without corruption bearest God the Word and art truly Theotokos: We magnify thee.

READINGS

THE HOLY MARTYRS ACINDYNUS, PEGASIOS, APHTHONIUS, ELPIDEPHORUS, AND ANEMPODISTUS OF PERSIA

The Holy Martyr Akindynos and those with him were from Persia and lived during the persecution of King Shapur II (309-379) which took place in the year 330, and they enjoyed honored positions at his side. During this time he cruelly tortured those who confessed their faith in Christ. For this reason Saint Akindynos, Pegasios and Anempodistos hid themselves in a house, where they taught the Christians. For this reason they were arrested and brought before the King.

At first the tyrant had these Saints hung up and beaten with rods by four torturers, until they grew tired, at which time they were replaced by another four men. When the tyrant saw their endurance, he ordered that a flame be lit under their feet, at which time the Saints prayed and our Lord Jesus Christ appeared and caused the flame to be as refreshing dew and loosed them from their bonds. The Saints were therefore brought before the tyrant with smiles on their faces, and he believed them to be magicians for being able to escape unharmed from such torture. This confusion and wonder caused him to lose the ability to speak and to hear, so he used his hands to communicate. Taking pity on the King's misfortune, Akindynos healed him. But instead of glorifying God, he became more enraged.

The tyrant then ordered the Saints to be laid out over an iron bed and to have a flame lit beneath it. They endured this in a miraculous way and were preserved unharmed. This caused many to believe in Christ, but King Shapur ordered them to worship the god Zeus and deny Christ. Instead the Saints prayed and the idol was smashed into a thousand pieces. He therefore ordered them to be thrown in a cauldron of boiling lead, but they remained unharmed from this also. The tyrant then went to drown them in the cauldron, but instead his hands were burned. When a soldier by the name of Aphthonios saw this miracle, he proclaimed his acceptance of the Christian faith, and the tyrant ordered for his beheading. Aphthonios prayed to God and willingly bent his neck to the sword. The Christians then gathered his sacred relic and buried it with honors.

Then the tyrant ordered for the Saints to be tied into the skins of oxes and to be thrown into the sea in order to drown. But the skins ripped open by the miraculous intervention of Saint Aphthonios and the Saints emerged from the water unharmed. The tyrant then ordered for the hands of the executioners to be cut off, thinking they did not fulfill his order, and then they were cast into the sea when they also came to believe in Christ for the miracle they witnessed. Thus these four executioners received the crown of martyrdom.

Then Elpidophoros, who was a leader with senatorial rank, as well as a secret Christian, bravely confessed his faith before the tyrant. Another senator named Philologos did the same. Seven thousand others came forward and confessed their faith in Christ, and they were all beheaded. Then Akindynos, Pegasios and Anempodistos and others were ordered by the tyrant to be thrown into a lake full of wild beasts, but they emerged unharmed. This caused the mother of the tyrant to believe in Christ. Lastly they were all cast into a fiery furnace, where they were perfected by the fire and received the crown of martyrdom. [From Mystagogy]

THE DISMISSAL

The Leader bows toward the icon of Christ on the iconostasis, saying:

Leader: Glory to thee, O Christ our God and our Hope, glory to thee.

All: Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen. Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy. O Lord, bless.

Leader: O Thou Who rose again from the dead, Christ our true God, through the intercessions of his all-immaculate and all-blameless holy Mother; of our venerable and God-bearing fathers; of the Holy Myrrh-Bearer and Equal to the Apostles Mary Magdalene, protector of this community; of the holy, glorious, and right-victorious Martyrs Akindynos, Pegasios, Aphthonios, Elpidophoros and Anempodistos of Persia, whose memory we celebrate today, and of all the saints: have mercy on us, and save us, for Thou art good and lovest mankind.

Then, facing the icon of Christ, on the iconostasis, the Leader says:

Leader: Through the prayers of our holy fathers, Lord Jesus Christ our God, have mercy on us, and save us.

All: Amen.
